

BAGGAGE DECLARATION

In the unlikely event that your missing baggage has not been returned to you within 5 days of your travel, you should complete this Baggage Declaration form.

The form has a dual purpose: to augment the tracing efforts and to be used as the basis of a claim should the search prove unsuccessful. We know that finding your missing baggage is more important to you than the limited indemnities described below. An erroneous or incomplete description will hamper the tracing in spite of our staff's best efforts and could hinder any settlement.

If you reside in North America, the completed form should be mailed to our Montreal office at the address below. Residents of other countries should send it to the closest Air Canada office. PLEASE INCLUDE ALL AIRLINE TICKETS, BAGGAGE CLAIM CHECKS, AND EXCESS BAGGAGE RECEIPTS (if applicable) AND RECEIPTS FOR ALL ITEMS CLAIMED MUST BE ATTACHED TO SUBSTANTIATE YOUR CLAIM. PLEASE ATTACH A PHOTOCOPY OF A SIGNED PHOTO IDENTIFICATION. If you have homeowner/household insurance, baggage or credit card insurance against which you may claim, please complete question # 13.

Air Canada Baggage Claims
Air Canada ZIP 1116
P.O. Box 8000, station Airport
Dorval, Quebec

Any claim must be made in writing within 21 days of your arrival. This completed signed Baggage Declaration form is the official written notice of a claim. The report made at the airport is an incident report only. All claims will be processed as quickly as possible.

The Conditions of Contract on your ticket/e-ticket itinerary refer to limitations of liability based on tariffs, and/or the Warsaw Convention and/or the Montreal Convention. These amounts are not automatically payable but reflect what the maximum compensation might be, as each claim is subject to proof of loss.

Please note that special rules apply to fragile and perishable items and that consequential damages such as loss of enjoyment, loss of business, inconvenience, etc. are not compensable.

Please also note that for domestic travel within Canada, or for any travel where none of the aforementioned Conventions apply, airlines are not liable for the loss of money, jewellery, silverware, samples, business documents, electronic equipment or other valuable articles, whatever the circumstances.

Thank you for your cooperation and understanding. We sincerely hope that our combined efforts will result in the prompt return of your missing property.
